

NATIONAL YOUTH LEADERSHIP TRAINING

LAAC - 2014 Weekend & Weeklong

NYLT (National Youth Leadership Training) is a focused, high-energy, participatory leadership course for Boy Scouts and Venture Crews. During the summer of 2014 the Los Angeles Area Council will be offering this national Youth leadership course at two (2) different times and locations, and in both a two (2) extended weekends and a weeklong format.

WHAT:

A primary Unit Leader (SM/Advisor) role is to train their youth in leadership skills. NYLT is geared to support those Troop/Crew efforts. Some course objectives include:

- Knowledge and application of the learning cycle - BE, KNOW, DO.
- Developing team visions, setting and attaining SMART goals.
- Providing Scouts with a "skills toolbox" using the latest concepts and practices employed in today's professional training and best management practices (BMPs).
- Effective skills in communication, the teaching EDGE, team development, problem solving - EAR, conflict resolution and making ethical decisions.

All offered in a fun environment with a program infused with the Scout Spirit.

Modeling "a month in the life" of an ideal BSA Unit (Troop/Crew), each NYLT Patrol will be challenged to present its own "Quest for the Meaning of Leadership." This challenge is designed to have each go through the four (4) stages of team development; and, help the Teams (Patrol/Crew) and Scouts internalize the leadership concepts and skills presented along the trail through NYLT.

WHO:

Participants interested in becoming better and more effective leaders both in Scouting and in life. Each Participant must either be:

- Scout: be First Class or above in rank; be at least 13 years old; and, have completed their Troop-run ILST (Introduction to Leadership Skills for Troop).
- Venturer (Male or Female), have completed their Crew-run ILSC ((Introduction to Leadership Skills for Crew) to attend the extended weekends course.

WHEN:

- Course Option 1 - Extended Weekends Course (Must attend both weekends):
 - Weekend Session 1 - Friday through Sunday, 20-22 June 2014; and,
 - Weekend Session 2 - Friday through Sunday, 27-29 June 2014.
- Course Option 2 - Weeklong Course:
 - Monday through Saturday, 28 July - 2 August 2014.
